PREVIOUS POSTS

A: THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1985 – 1986.

In this position I met with the prime Ministers of Great Britain, India, Pakistan, Malaysia, Canada, Morocco, Israel, Algeria, Egypt, Cote d'Ivoire, Senegal, Mali, Zambia, Mozambique, Botswana, Congo, Zaire; the king of Lesotho; the Foreign Ministers of most Asian, South American, Middle East, European and African Countries.

ACHIEVEMENTS AS FOREIGN MINISTER

CEASE FIRE TERMS ENDORSED BY INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE: During my period as Foreign Minister, I was involved in negotiating the cease-fire in the Chad-Libyan, and in the Mali-Burkina Faso wars, the terms of the latter were later endorsed by the International Court of Justice.

CONCERT OF MEDIUM POWERS: I would rank this as my boldest move. I conceived the idea of bringing together medium powers for the purpose of using their collective bargaining power to mediate disputes within the international system. I initiated a series of diplomatic initiatives to implement the concept. The idea was accepted, and two diplomatic conferences at official level were held with the following countries in attendance: Canada, Mexico, Peru, Brazil, Venezuela, Argentina, India, Pakistan, Malaysia, Indonesia, Austria, Sweden, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Egypt, Algeria, Nigeria, Senegal, Australia, and Switzerland. The participants at the conferences worked out the operational modality for implementing the concept. The next stage, if I had remained in office, was to have been at Foreign Ministerial/Summit level to sign the documents to bring the Concert into existence.

TECHNICAL AID CORPS SCHEMES: This is a scheme that I introduced to restructure quite radically Nigerian foreign assistance programme. The emphasis was shifted away from monetary disbursement to skilled personnel placement in Africa, Caribbean, and Pacific nations.
